the germs are in their bodies, but are not active and cannot be spread to others.

do not flush medication in the toilet; it could remain in the water supply.

syndrome characterized by weight gain, vulnerable skin, muscle weak point, purplish strip marks on the