when i turned 18 i left my father's house (as many of us did) and i did the same with this doctor.

i just need advice, how to go about legally doing this, helping a child? who can i contact?

evidence for the most often used approach, b.i.d

the comments on here from people who have had trouble with their treatment or their family has had trouble with their treatment make me very sad

we are not responsible for improperly formatted links regardless of whether you have made amendments to the code or not