already, a migration to generic drugs means that 60 percent of prescriptions over all are filled by off-brand versions of drugs.

part a covers hospital services, while part b covers other types of medical expenses.

why is it a bad idea to lower the age to 16? most teenagers do abuse the drug i admit, but some smoke it for the reasons you do and most of us do.

maybe you could space it out better?